Panel of seven women seated on a stage in front of a pink table. They are dressed in traditional Indian attire (sarees and blouses) in various colors including yellow, blue, green, and pink. A yellow water bottle is placed on the table. The women appear to be engaged in a discussion or listening to a speaker.

Speaker: A woman in a white and maroon uniform, possibly a school or institutional representative, standing on the right side of the stage and addressing the audience.

Audience: Several women are seated on the floor in the foreground, facing the stage. They are dressed in traditional Indian attire, including sarees and blouses, and are attentively listening to the speaker.
