

Telangana Tribal Welfare Residential Degree College for Men, Kamareddy

Sarampally X Road, Kamareddy, 503111

Ph: 7901097707

Department of Political Science

Course Outcomes

Semester I- Understanding Political Theory

On completion of the course, the student will be able:

CO 1	To understand the evolution, nature and significance of political theory.
CO 2	To discuss the debates on political theory: normative and empirical.
CO 3	To evaluate the theories of origin of the state.
CO 4	To analyse the concepts of power, authority and sovereignty. To understand the meaning of authoritative allocation of values.
CO 5	To appreciate the concepts of liberty, equality and justice. To derive the liberal, Marxist and feminist perspectives.
CO 6	To understand the various political Ideologies like Liberalism, nationalism and multiculturalism.
CO 7	To know about the formation of political institutions and their functions: Political parties, pressure groups and the media.
CO 8	To comprehend the sources of political information.

Semester II - Western Political Thought

On completion of the course, the student will be able:

CO 1	To understand the importance and relevance of western political thought.
CO 2	To appreciate the Greek political philosophy of Plato and Aristotle.
CO 3	To understand the political thought of St. Thomas Aquinas. To learn about the church-state controversy and the medieval period.
CO 4	To learn the changes that led to the emergence of modern political philosophy. To understand the contribution of Niccolo Machiavelli to the western political philosophy.
CO 5	To critically analyse the political philosophy of social contractualists: Hobbes, Locke and Rousseau.
CO 6	To appreciate the utilitarian political philosophy of Jeremy Bentham and JS Mill.
CO 7	To understand the political philosophy of G W F Hegel
CO 8	To critically evaluate the Marxist political philosophy.

Semester III- Indian Political Thought

On completion of the course, the student will be able:

CO 1	To learn about the important political concepts and theories in ancient India.
CO 2	To learn the political philosophy of Kautilya and Manu.
CO 3	To understand the philosophy of Gautama Buddha, the concepts of Dhamma, Astanga Marga and Sangha.
CO 4	To critically evaluate the works of Indian political philosophy of medieval India: Basava and Zia-uddin Barani.
CO 5	To understand the political philosophy that led the renaissance movement in modern India. Raja Ram Mohan Roy and Jyothi Rao Phule.
CO 6	To inculcate the spirit of ahimsa, satyagraha, through Gandhian philosophy.
CO 7	To appreciate the philosophy of annihilation of caste and its relevance.
CO 8	To analyse the socialist political philosophy of MN Ray, Jawaharlal Nehru and Ram Manohar Lohia.

Semester IV– Constitution and Politics in India

On completion of the course, the student will be able:

CO 1	To identify the causes, impact of British colonial rule. To appreciate the various phases of Indian national movement.
CO 2	To understand the philosophy of Indian constitutions. To know the salient features in making of Indian constitution.
CO 3	To understand the framework of Indian government at Union level.
CO 4	To evaluate the organisation and functioning of state government.
CO 5	To learn about centre-state relations: legislative, administrative and financial.
CO 6	To critically evaluate the Indian Political party system. To acquaint with national and regional parties.
CO 7	To analyse the role of elections, election commission and electoral reforms in India.
CO 8	To discuss and debate the issues secularism, caste, gender and minorities.

Semester V - International Relations

On completion of the course, the student will be able:

CO 1	To understand the evolution, scope and significance of international relations.
CO 2	To analyze the history of colonialism and its impact.
CO 3	To know the causes, course of war and impact of first world war and second world war.
CO 4	To acquaint with cold war politics and ideological warfare.
CO 5	To appreciate the Non Alignment Movement, its growth and relevance.
CO 6	To understand the concept of foreign policy, and its determinants.
CO 7	To critically analyze Indian foreign policy with major power and neighbouring countries.
CO 8	To acquaint with UNO and other international organizations and their importance.

Semester VI–Global Politics

On completion of the course, the student will be able:

CO 1	To understand the concept of power, and the growing importance of soft power.
CO 2	To analyze the concept of international security and Human security.
CO 3	To learn about unipolarity, bipolarity and multipolarity.
CO 4	To understand the emerging areas in international relations: Terrorism, Human Right and Environment.
CO 5	To appreciate the concept of sustainable development.
CO 6	To identify various issues and challenges towards international relations.
CO 7	To learn about international political economy.
CO 8	To acquaint with the concepts of arms race, arms control and disarmament.