

75th Anniversary of the National Sample Survey

An awareness program on data collection and its importance, especially on the occasion of 75 years celebrations, is a great way to:

1. Highlight the significance of data-driven decision-making
2. Showcase the impact of NSSO's work on national development
3. Educate participants on the methodologies and best practices in data collection
4. Encourage participation and collaboration from various stakeholders

