ADMISSION COMMITTEE

INTRODUCTION:

Tribal Welfare Residential Educational Society (TGTWREIS) is a registered society committed for the cause of quality education of tribal students. The society is currently operating 165 institutions from class I to PG as part of its flagship KG TO PG mission. There are 22 Degree Colleges in English medium.

The Admission Committee will work to carry out the admissions process in a manner that is equitable, efficient, and timely. It aims to be cognizant of enhancing the pool of qualified students of diverse backgrounds, as well as guidelines for the reasonable accommodation of potential students who are affected with Disabilities. The notifications/circulars regarding reservation policy declared by the affiliating University is adhered to while enrolling students for the courses. Sanctioned intake capacity is also duly considered. The committee also aims to identify and select the most qualified applicants in the total applicant pool and continually monitor college admissions policy and procedures to ensure efficiency, effectiveness and equity. The committee works towards making the admission process simple, student friendly, time bound and free from any errors and flaws.

AIM: To providing quality education to the rural tribal students for their better future and helping them to conquer in all aspects through education

COLLEGE ADMISSION CAMPAIGN DOCUMENTATION.

This document outline the strategy, objectives and execution plan for the TGTWRDC GIRLS Admission campaign for the academic year 2025. The Campaign aims to attract prospective students, provide essential information and increase Enrolment

The objective of a college admission campaign is to effectively communicate and showcase the unique qualities, programs, and opportunities of a specific college or university to prospective students. The goal is to attract, engage, and convince students to apply and ultimately enroll in the institution. Here are key objectives for such a campaign:

1. Increase Awareness: Introduce the institution to prospective students and parents. Highlight what sets the college apart, including academic programs, campus culture, location, and student life.
2. Highlight Programs & Offerings: Showcase the college's academic offerings, unique programs, extracurricular activities, internships, research opportunities, and other factors that could attract potential applicants.
3. Drive Applications: Encourage students to take the step toward applying by making the process clear, accessible, and appealing. Highlight deadlines, application processes, scholarships, and financial aid options.
4. Build a Strong Brand: Develop a strong, positive image of the college that resonates with prospective students, aligning with their values, aspirations, and goals.
5. Engage with the Audience: Use various channels such as social media, email marketing, and events to directly engage with prospective students and their families, addressing their needs, questions, and concerns.
6. Demonstrate Campus Life: Provide a glimpse into the college experience beyond academics, including student organizations, campus events, and the overall student community.
7. Showcase Success Stories: Highlight alumni success stories, student achievements, and testimonials to build trust and demonstrate the value of attending the college.
8. Foster Relationships: Build long-term relationships with students and their families, guiding them through the entire application process and keeping them informed about important updates and decisions.
