HUMAN RIGHTS DAY

DECEMBER 10th

Human Rights Day is observed every year on 10 December – the day on which the United Nations General Assembly adopted, in 1948, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. The Universal Declaration of Human Rights empowers us all.

Human Rights Day (HRD) is celebrated annually around the world on 10 December every year.

The date was chosen to honor the United Nations General Assembly's adoption and proclamation, on 10 December 1948, of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), the first global enunciation of human rights and one of the first major achievements of the new United Nations.

The day is normally marked both by high-level political conferences and meetings and by cultural events and exhibitions dealing with human rights issues. Besides, it is traditionally on 10 December that the five-yearly United Nations Prize in the Field of Human Rights and Nobel Peace Prize are awarded. Many governmental and non-governmental organizations active in the human rights field also schedule special events to commemorate the day, as do many civil and social-cause organizations

NATIONAL EDUCATION DAY

NOVEMBER 11

National Education Day is an annual observance in India to commemorate the birth anniversary of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, the first education minister of independent India, who served from 15 August 1947 until 2 February 1958. National Education Day of India is celebrated on 11 November every year

The Ministry of Human Resource Development announced on 11 September 2008, "The Ministry has decided to commemorate the birthday of this great son of India by recalling his contribution to the cause of education in India. November 11 every year, from 2008 onwards, will be celebrated as the National Education Day, with declaring it as a holiday." All educational institutions in the country mark the day with seminars, symposia, essay-writing, elocution competitions, workshops and rallies with banner cards and slogans on the importance of literacy and the nation's commitment to all aspects of education.

The day is also seen as an occasion to remember Azad's contribution in laying the foundations of the education system in an independent India, and evaluating and improving the country's current performance in the field

WORLD DAY OF SOCIAL JUSTICE

February 20th

World Day of Social Justice (Social Justice Equality Day) is an international day recognizing the need to promote social justice, which includes efforts to tackle issues such as poverty, exclusion, gender inequality, unemployment, human rights, and social protections.¹¹¹ Many organizations, including the UN, American Library Association (ALA), and the International Labour Organization, make statements on the importance of social and present plans for greater social justice by tackling poverty, social and economic exclusion and unemployment. The United Nations General Assembly has decided to observe 20 February annually, approved on 26 November 2007 and starting in 2009, as the World Day of Social Justice.

The Declaration focuses on guaranteeing fair outcomes for all through employment, social protection, social dialogue, and fundamental principles and rights.

World Social Justice Day is celebrated on February 20th every year. The main objective of celebrating World Social Justice Day is to raise a voice against social injustice and to bring the various communities internationally together.

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF DEMOCRACY

15 SEPTEMBER

The International Day of Democracy is celebrated around the world on 15 September each year. It was established through a resolution passed by the UN General Assembly in 2007, encouraging governments to strengthen and consolidate democracy. We encourage all our Member Parliaments to mark the day with events and celebrations. Since the day was first observed in 2008, hundreds of parliamentary events have been held worldwide. These have included photo competitions, workshops for children, live televised debates, radio phone-ins and meetings with civil society organizations.

STUDENT COUNCIL ELECTIONS

The Student Council Elections at Gurukulam represent a significant annual tradition that embodies democratic values and leadership development among students. Following the institution's established protocols, elections were successfully conducted on September 19, 2023 and 2024, initiating with a formal notification for nominations from eligible second-year students. The electoral process was meticulously organized with a structured administrative team, including a Presiding Officer, Polling Officer, Assistant Polling Officer, and Counting Officer, ensuring a transparent and fair election process.

The election encompassed various crucial leadership positions including Captain, Vice-Captain, General Secretary, and several portfolio leaders responsible for sports, discipline, food management, student welfare, cultural activities, and academic affairs. Students participated enthusiastically in the democratic process, casting their votes through a formal ballot system under strict supervision, demonstrating their understanding of civic responsibility and democratic participation.

Following the polling process, the counting of votes was conducted with utmost precision by designated counting officers in the presence of witnesses, maintaining the integrity of the electoral process. The results were promptly declared, identifying the successful candidates who would form the new Student Council. The culmination of the election process was marked by a formal oath-taking ceremony on September 21, 2023, where the Principal officially inducted the newly elected leaders into their respective positions.

LEGAL AWARENESS PROGRAMME

We Conducted a Legal Awareness Programme on 29th February 2024. Chief Guest of the Programme was Srimati Bhanumathi, Senior Civil Judge. Other Senior advocates also attended the programme. She spoke on 'Effective implementation of poverty allegations programmes and Government schemes'.
