

Dr. Sufiya Naheed, Degree Lecturer in English.

Date of birth: 08th November 1984

Nationality: Indian

Address: Hanamkonda, Warangal 506001, India

Phone number: 7780158307

Email address: sufiya.naheed@gmail.com

PROFILE

Degree Lecturer in English with extensive experience in creating dynamic literature and language courses. Successfully developed a curriculum that merged contemporary and classic texts, leading to a 30% increase in student enrollment over two years, which demonstrates its appeal. Additionally, implemented project-based assessments that resulted in a 20% rise in average student grades, enhancing engagement. Committed to fostering a vibrant learning environment and enriching the educational experience for all students.

WORK EXPERIENCE

present

DEGREE LECTURER IN ENGLISH Telangana Tribal Welfare Residential Degree College for women, Mahabubabad.

- Designed and delivered engaging English literature and language courses to a diverse group of undergraduate students, fostering a rich learning environment that encouraged critical thinking and creativity.
- Developed a curriculum that integrated contemporary texts with classic literature, which helped increase student enrollment in English courses by 30% over two academic years.
- Implemented innovative assessment methods, including project-based evaluations, which improved overall student performance and engagement, resulting in a 20% increase in average grades.
- Organized a student-led literary festival, providing a platform for students to showcase their work, which enhanced community involvement and raised awareness of the English department's offerings.
- Collaborated with colleagues on interdisciplinary projects, helping to expand course offerings and create a more holistic educational experience, ultimately boosting student satisfaction ratings by 15%.

SKILLS

Curriculum Development
Professional

Assessment
Methodologies
Professional