World English Language Day -23/04/2025

The World English Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm and academic fervor on 23rd April 2025 at TGTW Residential Degree College (Men), Nagarkurnool – Jadcherla. This event was organized to honor the significance of the English language and to commemorate the birth anniversary of the legendary playwright William Shakespeare, widely regarded as the greatest writer in the English language.

The program was graced by the presence of the esteemed Dr. K. Venkanna, DL in English, who served as the chief guest and keynote speaker. In his enlightening address, Dr. Venkanna emphasized the global importance of English in modern communication, education, and professional development. He encouraged students to enhance their language skills and appreciate the literary richness of English, citing Shakespeare's contributions as timeless inspirations.

The event witnessed the active participation of all the teaching staff and students of the college. The program featured a variety of activities including:

- A welcome speech and introduction to World English Day
- Keynote address by Dr. K. Venkanna
- Student recitations of famous English poems and Shakespearean monologues
- A short skit based on one of Shakespeare's plays
- Group discussions highlighting the role of English in career advancement
- Vote of thanks delivered by a senior faculty member

The celebration served not only to commemorate Shakespeare but also to foster a deeper appreciation of English language and literature among the students. It was a memorable occasion that successfully combined education, culture, and expression.
