

FIELD TRIP-VIJAYA DAIRY

Department of chemistry are visited vijaya dairy near to Nizamabad.

I have explained some tests of milk and separation of cream from milk. We explained packing of milk also. This total process is called "pasteurization". Students are learnt a lot of information through this trip.

FIELD TRIP – HISTORICAL PLACE IN SARANGAPU

Department of chemistry are visited one historical place in Sarangapur near the Nizamabad. According to the localities the foundation stone of this shrine is believed to be laid by a saint called “Samartha Ramadas” who was the guru of the great Indian leader chatrapati shivaji. The ancient temple of lord Hanuman is spread over a total of 1400acres land and the temple is situated on a beautiful and serene hillock.

FIELD TRIP-TELANGANA UNIVERSITY

Department of chemistry have to visited Telangana University as a part of field trip. In that university several PG courses are there. We have seen the m.sc chemistry laboratory and they explain some experiments like magnetic stirrer Device & Recrystalization process they explained TLC plates also. They show the smart board & explain some laboratory rules and safety precassions. Students & we learnt lot of information through this trip.

