Introduction:

The year 2021 – 22 marks Telangana Tribal Welfare Residential Degree College for Women, Rajanna Siricilla's end of 4th successful academic year and the beginning of a new hopefully year.

Since its inception, this institution has been working with the sole aim of providing quality education to the underprivileged students, who have zeal to achieve something big in their lives. Transformation and innovation are the unifying themes in all we do.

The 2021- 22 annual reports tell an inspiring story of striving and success, and makes clear how hard work and guidance go hand in hand. This year began with uncertainty and mayhem, but the dedication of our ever enthusiastic faculty and the devotion of our students towards their studies have turned the tables. In these challenging times of pandemic, our staff adapted themselves to the new technology, and equipped themselves with creative ways to reach out to the students and impart knowledge. As an institution, we strive to transform a student to a holistic globally responsible citizen and guide them to achieve any frontier they set in their life.

K. Rajani,
Principal(FAC)

Precautions during COVID-19

As our institutions working in these pandemic conditions, it's important that precautions are taken both inside and outside the classroom to prevent the spread of COVID-19. A lot will depend on staffs to ensure that students will be able to continue their education in a safe and healthy environment; and make up for knowledge and skills that may have been lost.

Understanding COVID-19, how it spreads and the way we protect ourselves and others is a crucial initiative in establishing classroom procedures and protocols. Students got to understand what it's so as for them to follow the rules. Discuss the various reactions they'll experience and explain that these are normal reactions to an abnormal situation.

Staff is therefore encouraged, and should be prioritized, to get vaccinated against COVID-19 once frontline health personnel and high-risk populations are vaccinated.

Social distancing:

- As the name suggests, social distancing or isolation aims to stop spreading transmissible diseases.
- This is the best way to stop the contagion, which can spread through direct or droplet contact by coughing or sneezing.
- The main entrance gate will be closed during college hours, The Watchwomen have also been instructed to not allow anyone inside the premises without self-sanitizing.
- Only essential service providers and common staff wearing masks are allowed to enter the premises.

Temperature check and disinfection of the college:

- At the entrance security staff conducting regular temperature checks of every staff and visitors.
- The health supervisor regularly monitors the student's temperature.
- Besides, the maintenance staff from Gram Panchayat is disinfecting the college twice in the month to ensure the hygiene and safety of the residents.

Conducting medical check-ups:

- If any students were suffering with fever & cold then the particular students were isolated in the isolation room and particular medication was given to them.
- On 28/12/2021 we conducted vaccination drive. Total 100 students were vaccinated. 55 students were administered their 2nd dose of COVISHIELD. 45 students were administered their 1st dose of COVAXIN.
- Wearing the mask in the college premises including mess area has been made mandatory to all the staff and students.
- In the class rooms & Dormitory the required measures were taken to maintain proper social distance.

Teach the five steps for hand washing:

- Wet hands with safe, running water
- Apply enough soap to cover wet hands
- Scrub all surfaces of the hands – including backs of hands, between fingers and under nails – for at least 20 seconds.
- Rinse thoroughly with running water
- Dry hands with a clean cloth or single-use towel.

Student elections :

Student council elections were held in our college TTWRDC(W),Rajanna Siricilla for the year 2021-2022, in the month of November. The main objective of the election was the formation of our students union who will manage the affairs of the College under the guidance and supervision of the principal and teaching staff affiliated to our college. The elections were held on 10th of November at the beginning of the academic session. A sort of democratic training was offered to the interested students at our college level to teach them how to become good citizens and shoulder responsibilities. College principal issued a notice to file nominations for the various offices of our students union on 7th of November. Ballot papers were printed confidentially. The student participants visited all the class rooms and halls to request other students to vote in their favour the contestants were allowed to explain the purpose of their candidature. All the teaching staff and election committee took initiation to count voting ballots. This year L.Soujanya, BZc-III was declared as the Captain of the College, after getting clear majority in counting.

Day 1

Inauguration of the Event and Activity: Think outside of the box

This is the most awaited day for all the students of the college. All the students were showed interest to participate in the program. On 6th Dec, 2021 at 2.00PM in the afternoon the program started with an inauguration by the Honorable principal Mrs. Rajani madam and Vice-Principal Mrs. Sudha Sindhu madam. Then an opening musical presentation made the audience feel the warmth. After that, the program started with a very short speech by our faculty Mrs. L.Anusha, faculty in Computer Science Department.

Good afternoon to principal, vice- principal, staff members and students with a great joy and immense exultation. I feel privileged to extend my warm welcome to all presented here for the celebration of “Computer Science Education Week 2021”. We are grateful for your valuable time that we get to share with you. This function has been in the works for a few weeks and today we are inaugurating this with a hopeful heart. I would like to present a short note about this occasion.

Computer Science Education Week (CSEdWeek) is held in honour of “Admiral Grace Brewster Murray Hopper.” Her birth anniversary is on the 9th of December but the event carries-on for the whole week. She was part of the programming team that worked on Harvard Mark 1 computer which was used during the end of World War II.

Hopper was born on December 9th, 1906, and is known as a pioneer in computer programming whose contributions led to the development of COBOL, one of the first modern computer languages.

This week is designed to raise awareness of the trans-formative role of computing in our global society and promote computer science education at all education levels.

During the week in December, students are encouraged to take part in an “Hour of Code.”

Coding involves telling the computer what to do by writing out instructions. No one see it, but coding is everywhere.

Along with coding, this week also promotes the importance of computer science. This is an important subject because it teaches us problem-solving techniques and gives analytical skills.

For example,

- It enables weather forecasters to make better predictions so that people are alerted more quickly, thus saving more lives.
- Computer science connects people throughout the world through social media, video calling, and chatting apps.
- It helps charities streamline their donations and help meet the financial needs of nonprofit organizations.

Another great thing about computer science is that the jobs in this field are expected to grow by 13 percent by 2026.

Anyone with only the fundamental understanding of coding/programming can participate in the following activities.'

We planned activities based on few concepts from computer science.

1. Think outside of the box, Traffic Jam - both activities relates to problem solving and logical thinking techniques.
2. Who knows me better - How the memory management works.
3. Quiz - it is one activity to judge how much knowledge we have
4. Coding, Flying pen - this is all about team work,

Once you step out from the education, and want to join in any organization for employment, team work is very important factor to lead your life.

5. Buzz word is identifying the problem statement.

The principal of the college was invited then to deliver her valuable speech. On the stage, she talked about the Heritage and the significance of the Computer Week program. The most attractive part of the whole program was an Activity called "Think outside of the Box" conducted among the staff. The formal ceremony continued for five days.

Activity 1: Think outside of the box - innovation and problem solving

Number of participants: 2 people

Duration: 10 minutes

What you'll need: Ribbons tied on the hand of two persons

How to play:

Usually two persons are handcuffed together. Task is not to take off handcuffs, but disconnect two persons. Seems like impossible task to do and good fun if you do not know how it works.

Objectives:

- Solving problems creatively
- Breaking free of routine
- Stepping out of their shoes
- Challenging assumptions
- Turning failure into opportunity

Day 2

Activity: Flying Pen & Traffic Jam

Activity 2: Flying Pen

Number of participants: 4 people

Duration: 5 minutes

What you'll need: marker pen, string or duct tape, sheets of paper

How to play:

Flying Pen tasks the team with writing a specified word using without physically laying their hands on the pen. They must instead use the attached pieces of rope in order to use the pen write the word. This game is both interesting and fun, encouraging great team communication and cooperation skills.

Objectives:

- Effective communication skills
- Operational planning skills
- Teamwork skills
- Executive leadership skills

Activity 3: Traffic Jam: Concept of Deadlocks and Networking

Number of participants: 8 people

Duration: 10 minutes

What you'll need: Nine Circles drawn on the floor.

How to play:

Traffic Jam is a great limited prop initiative that can be challenging and self-motivating to solve. In this life-sized brainteaser, participants on two sides navigate over a series of circle using only the unoccupied circle that is positioned to start in the middle. There is only one way to accomplish this, so groups must communicate and work together to find the solution. Teamwork and patience always win in the end.

The objective of this trial and error task is to have the two equal groups of teammates that are facing each other, change places on the line of circles.

Objectives:

- Effective communication skills
- Operational planning skills
- Teamwork skills
- Executive leadership skills

Day 3

Activity: Who knows me best?

DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTER SCIENCE

Activity 4: Who knows me best? Memory and testing the skills

Number of participants: 4 people

Duration: 5 minutes

What you'll need: charts, marker pen plaster, thermocol sheets

How to play:

Usually four persons are have to rearrange the keyboard keys in an order same as on the Keyboard within the given time. They'll observe the particular keyboard at the place to begin of the task for 1min, and remember the order so they have to rearrange the keys within the same order.

Objectives:

- It improves the observation
- Teamwork skills
- Executive leadership skills
- Memory skills
- Time management skills

Day 4

Activity: Quiz on Computer Knowledge

Activity 5: Quiz on Computer Knowledge

Number of participants: 5 people

Teams: 9

Duration: 3 Hrs

Quiz rules and regulations:

- Quiz consists of 4 rounds.
- Team consist of five people in each, total 9 teams formed.
- There will be 4 rounds and 4 questions in each round for each team up to the last round.
- Point awarded: 10 points for each question and 5 Bonus point for passed over questions.

Day 6

Activity: Workshop on Latest Technology

Activity 8: Workshop on Latest Technology

What you'll need: Transparent Sheets, Scissors, Scale, Pencil, Paper, Protractor and Plaster

How does it work?

Four symmetrically opposite variations of the same image are projected onto the four faces of the pyramid. By principle, each side projects the image falling on it to the center of the pyramid. These projections work in unison to form a whole figure, which creates a 3D illusion.

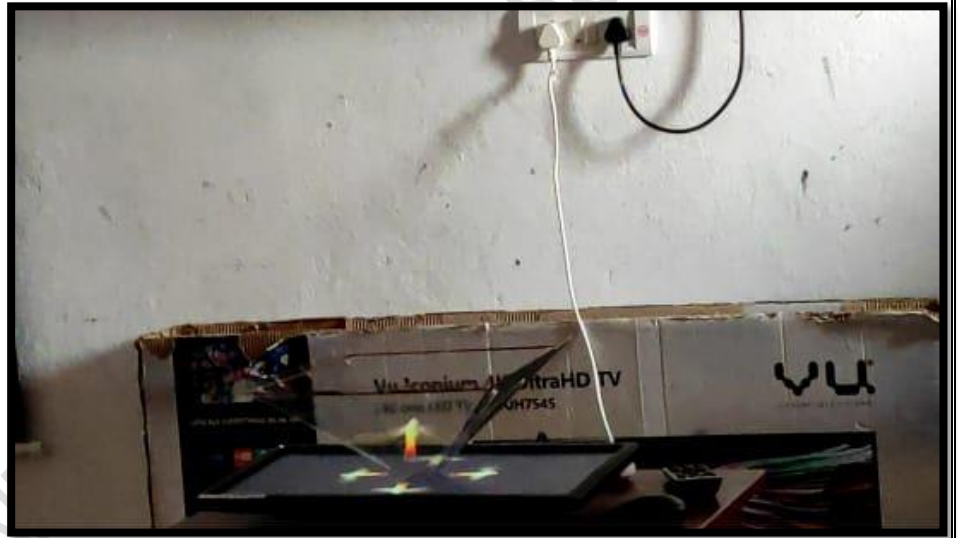

Create an image/Video

1. Start with a black or dark-colored background. This will result in the hologram projection showing up bright and clear.
2. Before creating the image, draw an "x" to divide the paper or screen. ...
3. Draw an image in one of the four triangular-shaped spaces.
4. Repeat the same image in the three remaining spaces.

This device is prepared and presented by D.Gayatri, M.Vaihnavi, M.Anusha from MPCs III Yr.
